Andrew “Drew” Davis is a Certified Public Accountant specializing in the construction and manufacturing industries. Working with St. Clair CPAs, P.C. since its inception in 1986, Drew also has significant experience in financial reporting and accounting for governmental and not-for-profit entities, as well as engineering firms, the medical and legal professions, and service businesses.

Drew provides accounting, auditing, and tax services to clients with annual revenues ranging from less than $1 million to more than $100,000 million. Whether assisting controllers and CFOs at larger companies, or advising small and mid-sized family-owned businesses, Drew seeks to increase efficiencies and decrease tax liability. Clients trust him to serve as a liaison to bonding and surety companies and financial institutions; streamline job costing processes, develop job-specific overhead rates; provide accurate reporting for multi-state tax filings and the Keystone Opportunity Zone credits; perform reviews; and audit financial statements that help achieve business goals.

As a Principal of St. Clair CPAs, P.C., a subsidiary of St. Clair CPA Solutions, Drew upholds the firm’s commitment to deliver high quality service that exceeds expectations. His hands-on approach to engagements has enabled Drew to build lasting relationships with clients, serving some companies for as long as 20 years.

Drew received his bachelor’s degree in accounting from Drexel University. He lives with his wife and two children in Ridley Park, Pennsylvania.
