Colleen E. Levin, CPA
Manager

clevin@stclaircpa.com

Colleen Levin has made client service her highest priority since joining St. Clair & Associates, CPAs in 1986. As the firm grew to become St. Clair CPAs, P.C., an affiliate of St. Clair CPA Solutions, Colleen honed her skills in the Accounting and Auditing department, where she now manages relationships with many types of clients and supervises accounting and auditing engagements.

Prior to becoming a Certified Public Accountant, Colleen worked in office management. Experienced in billing, bookkeeping, payroll, software, human resources, tax services, and business planning, she now complements her accounting and auditing services with management consulting that helps clients streamline their businesses to operate more efficiently and effectively. This may include providing guidance on insurance, investment, group benefits, and retirement planning services, which may be delivered by the financial professionals of St. Clair CPA Solutions and the firm's strategic partners.

Clients consider Colleen to be a true partner of their management team. She helps clients identify their goals and objectives, then works closely with key executives and stakeholders to develop and implement functional plans that support operations and growth. Colleen is valued for her financial and business systems expertise, as well as her ability to listen and respond to clients' needs.

Colleen earned a degree in Business Administration and Accounting from Drexel University. She lives with her husband and two children in Plymouth Meeting, PA.
