Joe LePera is a Certified Public Accountant with more than two decades of experience serving a wide range of closely-held businesses. As Accounting and Auditing Manager for St. Clair CPAs, P.C., an affiliate of St. Clair CPA Solutions, Joe is also responsible for monitoring legislative and technical revisions that impact accounting and audit processes, and ensures the firm's ongoing compliance and professional development in these areas.

Business owners and financial officers rely on Joe for a superior level of personal service in every aspect of accounting and auditing, as well as advisory consulting for strategic planning, management, and operational issues. When clients need financing, Joe provides guidance, document preparation, and disclosure statements, and works with lenders to secure the most appropriate bonds, loans, or lines of credit at the best possible terms. Joe also serves as a liaison between clients and banks to obtain banking and cash management services that are customized for each client's individual needs.

Joe's clients enjoy access to group benefits, insurance, investment, and retirement services through the professionals of St. Clair CPA Solutions and the company's strategic partners. By offering the convenience of comprehensive financial services delivered with extraordinary cooperation and communication between the firm's financial professionals, Joe is a highly valued partner to key executives, trusted for his expertise in serving businesses from large to small.

Joe earned his bachelor's of science degree in accounting from Drexel University. He and his wife reside in Broomall, Pennsylvania.
