Principal

mmostochuk@stclaircpa.com

As a Principal of St. Clair CPAs, P.C., Michael Mostochuk serves business clients with accounting, auditing, advisory, and tax services. His clients may also benefit from a full spectrum of insurance, investment, retirement, and wealth management services provided through the firm's affiliate, St. Clair CPA Solutions.

Michael's extensive experience as a Certified Public Accountant enables him to assist clients with valuable strategies for stability and growth. In addition to accounting, reporting, record keeping, and tax returns, Michael delivers sound financial guidance that helps companies navigate through economic cycles and uncertain times.

Clients rely on Michael to understand the complexities of their industry as well as the parameters of their business. He begins each engagement by listening closely to his clients' needs, then customizes a menu of services to satisfy short and long-term goals. While his clients span many fields, Michael has particular expertise in the areas of construction, affordable housing, and professional practices.

Michael earned a bachelor's degree in accounting from Temple University. He lives with his wife and two children in North Wales, Pennsylvania.

Securities and Advisory Services offered through Commonwealth Financial Network®, Member FINRA/SIPC, a Registered Investment Adviser.
